ORDINANCE NO. 110

Ordinance to Prohibit the sale of liquor without license.

Be it ordained by the Town Coundl of the Town of Atkins, Pope County, Arkansas, as follows.

Section 1. That any person who shall sell either for himself or another person, or be interested in the sale of ardent, vinous, malt, firmented or spiritous liquors, or compound preperation thereof commonly called tonics, bitters, or medicated liquor, within the incorporated limits of the town of Atkins, Arkansas, without previously having procured a license authorizing the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine in any sum not less than fifty dollars and not more than two hundred dollars, provided. This ordinance shall not apply to drugists, filling proscriptions from regular practicing physicians for alcohol for medical use in case of sickness, and provided further that this ordinance shall not prohibit the use of Wine for sacramental purposes.

Section 2. That this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, and publications.

Attest:

A. J. McCollum, Mayor
L. D. Ford, Jr., Recorder

Passed and approved January 7, 1908