ORDINANCE NO. 145

An Ordinance to provide for licensing and regulating certain occupations in the town of Atkins and defining the occupations subje to license.

Be it ordained by the Town Council of the incorporated town of Atkins, Arkansas, as follows:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person to engage the exercise or pursue any of the following avocations or business w out first having obtained and paid for a license therefor from the p per town authorities and the amount of each license is hereby fixed as follows:

1st. For each restaurant keeper and selling cooked meats, sandwiches, or bread and pickels, and pies from any stand, wagon, or tent, street or alley, sidewalk, or any vacant lot, in the town of Atkins, per year $25.00.

2nd. For each shoe shining stand from any wagon, or tent, street or alley, or any vacant lot in the town of Atkins, per month $1.00.

Section 2. Any person who shall engage in any business for which license is required in this Ordinance without first obtaining a paying for such license as herein required, or who shall fail to conform to any of the requirements, or regulations of this ordinance sha be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $25.00.

Section 3. All ordinances and parts of ordinaces in conflict herewith are hereby repealed. It being necessary for the peace, heal and safety of the town of Atkins and the State of Arkansas that this ordinance take effect at once. An emergency is hereby declared, and the same shall take effect immediately after the date of passing this ordinance.

Passed and approved this the 2nd of September, 1913.

A. J. McCollum

Mayor of the Town of Atkins.

Attest: W. J. Jones, Recorder