OK

ORDINANCE NO. 158

Whereas, the council of the Town of Atkins, Pope County, Arkansas, is of the opinion that a public street extending in an easterly direction from where Railroad Avenue terminates at the west side of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of Section twnety, in township seven north, rauge eighteen west, and extending east along the north side of the right of way of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern Railway Company, to the corporation line on the east side of said above described tract of land, which said street should be fifty feet wide, and should be an extension of said Railroad Avenue.

Therefore, be it ordained by the town council of the Town of Atkins, Arkansas:

SECTION 1. There is hereby created and ordered to be laid out and opened a public street fifty feet in width along and adjoining the north side of the right of way of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern Railway Company, in the Town of Atkins, Pope County, Arkansas, extending in an easterly direction across from the west side to the east side of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section twenty, in township seven north, range eighteen west.

SECTION 2. The street committee of the said Town of Atkins is hereby directed and empowered to lay out, establish and open said street and place the same in suitable condition for the accommodation of the traveling public.

SECTION 3. All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed, and this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Passed at a regular meeting of the town council of Atkins, Arkansas, February 6, 1917.

Attest:

Rife S. Hughey, Recorder.