ORDINANCE NO. 167

An Ordinance to prohibit the bringing of intoxicating liquors into the City of Atkins, Arkansas, and to prevent the carrying of the same from one place to another in the Town; prohibiting the storage or possession of same in the Town; prohibiting the storing or keeping the same at any locker or Club room or other place or carrying liquor thereto or keeping same therein; fixing the punishment and penalties and for other purposes as detailed in this Ordinance.

Be it ordained by the Council of the Incorporated Town of Atkins, Arkansas.

SECTION 1. That it shall be unlawful for any railroad company, express company or other common carrier, or any officer, agent or employee of any of them, or any person, to ship, transport or carry into or to deliver in this Town in any manner or by any means whatever, any alcohol, vinous, malt, spiritous fermented liquors or any compound or preparation thereof commonly called tonics, bitter or medicated liquors, except as provided in section 3 of this ordinance.

SECTION 2. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to store, keep, possess or have in possession in the Town of Atkins any of the liquors and beverages mentioned in Section 1 of this Ordinance, or to carry same from one place in the town to another, or store or possess same in any locker or club room in said town.

SECTION 3. That nothing in this ordinance shall make it unlawful (1) for any priest or minister of any religious denomination or sect to order and have shipped and delivered, wine for sacramental purposes nor for any person or corporation to carry or deliver for said pusposes to any such persons. (2) for any person, firm or corporation to have or have delivered alcohol for strictly medical or mechanical purposes.

SECTION 4. That any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars and not more than one thousand dollars.

SECTION 5. All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed, and this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Passed and approved this the 4th day of Nov., 1919.
