Cut

ORDINANCE NO. 183

An Ordinance to prohibit loafing and loitering in certain places in the City of Atkins, Ark.

Be it ordained by the City of Atkins, Arkansas.

SECTION 1. Any person or persons sho shall be found loafing or loitering at or in the vicinity of any hotel, restaurant, depot, lumber yard, stave yard, cotton yard, warehouse, church, school building, grand stand or any place of business, thoroughfare, theatre, place of amusement, public place or public property, and who shall fail or refuse to vacate such place when requested to do so by the City Marshal, his deputy or other ministerial officer, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than one nor more than twenty-five dollars.

SECTION 2. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed, and this ordinance shall be in force and effect from and after its passage and publication.

Passed and approved and ordered published on this the 1st day of July, 1924.

E. A. WILLIAMS, Mayor

ATTEST: E. L. HENDRICK, Recorder