CITY OF ATKINS, ARKANSAS

ORDINANCE NO. 293

AN ORDINANCE ABOLISHING THE ELECTIVE OFFICE OF MARSHAL AND CREATING THE APPOINTED OFFICE OF THE MARSHAL

WHEREAS, Arkansas Statutes 19-1103.2 gives the cities of the second class the powers to abolish the elective office of marshal of the cities of the second class when the town council of any city of the second class deems it to the best interest of the city to abolish that office and,

WHEREAS, the town council of the city of Atkins, which is a city of the second class, deems it to the best interest of the city of Atkins to abolish the elective office of marshal of Atkins and to make the office of marshal an appointive position, and

WHEREAS, the office of marshal is presently vacant,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF ATKINS, ARKANSAS that upon passage of this ordinance the office of Marshal of Atkins, Arkansas is hereby deemed and made a position subject to the appointment of the Mayor of Atkins, Arkansas with the advise, consent, and approval of the City Council of Atkins, Arkansas, and the possition of elective marshal is hereby abolished.

All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Dated this 4th day of November, 1969 in the town of Atkins, Arkansas, at the regular monthly meeting of the Atkins City council with 5 aldermen present and after reading said ordinance three (3) times, a motion for suspending the rule having been made and unanimously passed this ordinance is unanimously adopted.
