Dent

ORDINANCE NO.215

SECTION NO. 1 Regulating the sale of Light Wines & Beer.

That under the restrictions and regulations hereinafter provided, it shall be lawful to sell light wines 7 beer as prescribed by the state laws, in the town of Atkins.

There shall be charged and collected for each place of business stocking beer or wine for retail sale, the sum of $15.00 per annum payable in advance, to be collected by the town marshal and paid by him into the town treasury, and up on payment of said amount by any person of good moral character, and not having been charged and convicted for the sale of intoxicating liquors in the State of Arkansas within the past two years. It shall be the duty of the recorder to issue to such person a license to sell light beer and wines in their place of business for one year, upon the compliance of this ordinance.

There shall be charged and collected from each wholesale dealer of beer and wine the sum of $25.00 per annum, to be collected in advance by the town marshal and paid into the town treasure.

All places of business stocking beer and wine for sale shall be operated in open rooms and halls and there shall be no obstacles to obstruct the view from the streets and there shall be no private rooms connected with said business where said beer or wine may be sold.

Any person who shall operate a business offering beer of light wine for the sale without first obtaining a license therefor, shall be guilty of misdemeanor and shall be fined in the sum of $25.00 for the first day of operation and $15.00 per day for each day of operation until said license have been secured.

It shall be unlawful for any person, jobber or wholesaler to make deliveries of beer or wine on sundays in the town of Atkins, and anyone found guilty of making such deliveries shall be guilty of misdemeanor and fined $25.00 and costs for each offense.

The passage of this ordinance is necessary for the peace health and safety of the citizens of the town of Atkins and shall be put in full force from its passage and approval.

Approved 9-5-33

C. W. DARR, Mayor
FRED CANERDAY, Recorder